SPEED, SENSES, & CONDITIONS

Magical Weakness. You have disadvantage on charisma saving throws against magic Poison Resistance. You have advantage on saving throws against poison, and you have resistance against poison damage.

Intimidating Presence. You may use your strength instead of charisma when intimidating someone.

Qunari Resilience (Reaction—3/Long Rest). When you take damage, you can use your reaction to roll a d12+5 and reduce the damage by that total.

RACIAL TRAITS

Great Weapon Master. On your turn, when you score a critical hit with a melee weapon or reduce a creature to 0 hit points with one, you can make one melee weapon attack as a bonus action. Before you make a melee attack with a heavy weapon that you are proficient with, you can choose to take a -5 penalty to the attack roll. If the attack hits, you add +10 to the attack's damage.

Rage (Bonus Action—4/Long Rest). Advantage on Strength checks and Strength Saves. A +2 to damage rolls with strength melee weapon attacks. You have resistance to bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing damage.

Unarmored Defense. While you aren't wearing armor, your AC equals 17. You can use a shield and still gain this benefit.

Reckless Attack. When you make your first attack on your turn, you can decide to attack recklessly. Doing so gives you advantage on melee weapon attack rolls using Strength during this turn, but attack rolls against you have advantage until your next turn.

Danger Sense. You have advantage on Dexterity saving throws against effects that you can see, such as traps and spells. To gain this benefit, you can't be blinded, deafened, or incapacitated.

Extra Attack. You can attack twice, instead of once, whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

Fast Movement. Your speed increases by 10 feet while you aren't wearing heavy armor.

Blood Frenzy. While raging, you may add +5 to attack rolls. Additionally, if your current hit points are below half your maximum, you gain a bonus of +8 to attack and damage rolls. However, when your rage ends, you take 1d6 damage for each time you benefited from this feature during the rage. This damage ignores resistance and immunity.

Devour (Bonus Action). Drain vitality from a creature within 10 feet of you. The target must succeed on a Constitution saving throw DC16 or take necrotic damage equal to 1d8 + 5. You regain hit points equal to half the necrotic damage dealt.

Aura of Pain (Bonus Action—Short Rest). You can activate a 10-foot aura of pain around you for 1 minute. Creatures within the aura (excluding you) take 5 damage at the start of their turns. While the aura is active, you gain resistance to psychic damage.

Military Rank

You have a military rank from your career as a soldier. Soldiers loyal to your former military organization still recognize your authority and influence, and they defer to you if they are of a lower rank. You can invoke your rank to exert influence over other soldiers and requisition simple equipment or horses for temporary use. You can also usually gain access to friendly military encampments and fortresses where your rank is recognized.

BACKGROUND FEATURE

TRINKET

War has been your life for as long as you care to remember. You trained as a youth, studied the use of weapons and armor, learned basic survival techniques, including how to stay alive on the battlefield. You might have been part of a standing national army or a mercenary company, or perhaps a member of a local militia who rose to prominence during a recent war.

When you choose this background, work with your DM to determine which military organization you were a part of, how far through its ranks you progressed, and what kind of experiences you had during your military career. Was it a standing army, a town guard, or a village militia? Or it might have been a noble 's or merchant 's private army, or a mercenary company.
